West Australian Ballet's Junior Members

Terms and Conditions 2020

- In 2020, one Junior Membership costs fifty dollars ($50AUD) per child, and is valid between the purchase date and 31 December 2020. (Members need to renew annually to continue being a Junior Member).
- Members must be aged under 17 years old and currently enrolled in a dance school.

Each valid member receives the following benefits:

- Two (2) $15 tickets to any of WAB's main productions per calendar year.
Light and Shadow: Ballet at the Quarry, 7 - 29 February
The Sleeping Beauty, 8 - 23 May
STATE, 19 - 27 June
Dracula, 11 - 26 September
Gala, 19 November - 11 December
The Nutcracker, 21 November - 13 December
 - One (1) Junior Members t-shirt (size to be selected at time of membership application, replacement sizes not provided).
 - Discounts to a variety of WAB workshops and events.
 - 20% discount on WAB merchandise purchased in person.
 - A personalised birthday card, signed by a WAB dancer.
 - Priority communications about WAB auditions, workshops, productions and other relevant activities.
- Any unused tickets at the end of the calendar year will be forfeited.
 - Junior Members may be required to present your membership card to gain entry to the performance venues: His Majesty's Theatre, The Quarry Amphitheatre, and The State Theatre Centre of WA.
 - Junior Member's $15 tickets must be purchased with an adult (full or concession) ticket (a maximum of two Junior Member $15 tickets per adult ticket).
 - Junior Members $15 tickets cannot be purchased with any other offer including subscription packages.
 - Junior Members tickets are available in A, B or C Reserve (best available seats will be allocated).
 - Junior Members tickets are not valid for the Genesis season or regional touring performances.
 - Junior Members tickets are non-transferrable and cannot be transferred from one membership card to another.
 - Junior Members tickets cannot be exchanged for cash or merchandise.
 - All ticket bookings must be made online via waballet.com.au, over the phone by calling (08) 9214 0707 or in person at the West Australian Ballet Centre, 134 Whatley Crescent, Maylands.
